TECH NEXUS

Speed Programming (Competitive Coding Challenge)

PRE-EVENT

Contestants solve a set of algorithmic and data-structure problems of increasing difficulty on a timed online judge, in the style of ICPC/Codeforces contests, racing for the highest number of accepted solutions in the least time.

Rules & Specifications

Team Composition	Solo or teams of up to 2 members, sharing a single workstation and a single account on the judging platform.
Contest Duration	2 hours, with 4–6 problems ranging from beginner to advanced difficulty.
Allowed Languages	C, C++, Java, and Python (standard libraries only; no third-party packages).
Judging Platform	Problems are auto-graded on the official online judge. Only submissions made before time expires are counted.
Scoring System	• ICPC-style scoring: ranked first by total problems solved, then by cumulative time. • A penalty will be applied for every incorrect (Wrong Answer) submission on a problem eventually solved.
Resource Rules	• Only the official language documentation and standard library references are permitted; general internet browsing and AI code-assistants are prohibited during the contest. • Sharing code, hints, or solutions between teams is strictly forbidden.
Penalties	Any detected plagiarism, unauthorized resource use, or code-sharing results in immediate disqualification of all teams involved.

General Rules — Applicable to This Category

— Strict Punctuality — Teams must report to their arena, lab, stage, or table 20 minutes before their scheduled heat or session. Late arrival results in automatic forfeit.

— Fair Play & Sportsmanship — Abusive behavior, argument with referees/judges, or unsportsmanlike conduct leads to immediate disqualification.

— Original Work — All code, models, designs, and submissions must be the team's own original work produced within the stated contest window. Plagiarism or use of undisclosed pre-existing material leads to disqualification.

— Network & Infrastructure Integrity — Attacking, disrupting, or attempting unauthorized access to event Wi-Fi, judging platforms, gaming servers, or another team's systems/devices is strictly prohibited and may result in disqualification and legal action.

— Judge's Decision — The decision of the technical panel, head referees, and judges is indisputable and final.

These rules are issued by the Capital Youth Expo Pre-Event BUIC organizing committee. The committee reserves the right to modify rules, time limits, or format if necessary. Judges' decisions are final and non-contestable.
